City Clerk Chris Engels suggested Cody Newton and Steve Vonder Haar for nominations.

Commissioners wanted to know if they could submit multiple nominations.

It was decided everyone would look over the information and send in recommendations to discuss at the next Arts Commission Meeting. April 22, 2018 was the deadline for nominations to be submitted.

2. Finalize a potential Artist Input workshop and Community Open House with meet and greet of the Kuna Arts Commission – Commission

This would be 2 separate events.

There would be a call out for suggestions for art in downtown in February/March/April. The Commission was looking for 6 to 8 downtown locations for art. All art would need to be PG.

Artist input workshop would be scheduled for April 12, 2018. Artists attending would need to be put on a roster.

The Arts Commission would put a proposal together in May to share at the community open house which would be held June 14, 2018.

3. Discuss Upcoming Create & Sips – Chris Engels, City Clerk

Create and sip activity was discussed. There would be no February class. Cake Balls were scheduled for March 15, 2018 and Floral Arrangements were scheduled for April 19, 2018. Those events were still being locked in. May's class was as yet to be announced and a new call for instructors was out.
